

DECLARATION OF SAMANTHA "SAM" BRIASCO-STEWART

1. I am an individual currently residing in California. All of the matters set forth herein are personally known to me; and, if called as a witness, I would and could competently testify thereto.

2. I do not have any preexisting relationship with Respondent Bo Shang ("Respondent") whatsoever. I have never met, spoken with, messaged, or interacted with Respondent. Respondent, however, started contacting me out of the blue since at least June 2020, and has been attempting to contact me.

3. On July 4, 2020, Respondent sent me a message via LinkedIn, stating, "Sam I'm going to get down to body fat, plunder an entire country's economy with AI, then screw you so hard; I think you so screwed." I found his message to be abusive and harassing because we have never met and the messages are sexually explicit. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of this message.

4. On July 5, 2020, Respondent sent me a message via LinkedIn, stating, "Love you everything will be fine I'm just fingering some people in the butt for fun and to reduce your anxieties about what you may have seen in the past for any cunt fucking thing you may want to participate in for fun in the future <3... Good God hope I'll have a chance to love you in private soon cuz this shit is so awkward.... <3." I found this message to be abusive and harassing because we have never met and the messages are sexually explicit. I have interpreted this message as acknowledgment from Respondent that we have never met that we do not have any relationship whatsoever. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a true and correct copy of this message.

5. Beginning in January 2020, Respondent has been engaging in a campaign of threats, harassment, and behavior which has disturbed the peace of me and my family. Respondent has sent text messages to my family, who have told me that their peace has been disturbed. Despite the lack of contact or relationship between me and Respondent, Respondent's behavior has continued to escalate. In the past two months alone, Respondent has sent me hundreds of emails and text messages and has left me over fifty (50) voicemails. I have blocked the phone numbers associated with these voicemails and text messages, but Respondent uses different phone numbers to continue to contact me. These messages include threats, aggressive language, proclamations of love, references to Respondent masturbating, and other harassing behavior. Respondent has also attempted to contact me on multiple social media platforms, including Twitter, Instagram, Facebook, Twitch, PayPal, and Apple Pay. Respondent has also sent me at least six packages addressed to me to my work address.

6. These communications and Respondent's repeated contact have left me in fear that Respondent will engage in an act of violence against me and my family. I believe he is mentally unstable and has a mental health disorder based on the numerous communications I have received from him, including his communications attached to this declaration, I am concerned that Respondent will commit an act of violence against me and/or continue to threaten, harass, stalk, and disturb my peace via written communications and voicemails.

Respondent Engages In A Months-Long Campaign Of Threats, Abuse, And Harassment Directed At Ms. Briasco-Stewart.

7. In March of 2024, Respondent left me five voicemails and mailed a package to me at my work address. I found this to be abusive and harassing. It disturbed my mental peace and emotional calm.

8. In April and May of 2024, Respondent left me one voicemail, sent me four emails, and mailed a package to me at my work address. I found this to be abusive and harassing. It disturbed my mental peace and emotional calm.

9. Between July 4, 2024, and July 2, 2024, Respondent left me one voicemail and sent me four emails and five text messages. I found this to be abusive and harassing. It disturbed my mental peace and emotional calm.

10. On July 23, 2024, Respondent texted me, "I can't imagine angry sex with u unfortunately no ability to bye ur useless to me." I found this text message to be abusive and harassing. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 is a true and correct copy of this text message.

11. On July 24, 2024, Respondent left me one voicemail and sent me four text messages. In one text message, Respondent wrote, "Surprisingly loving u but never jerking off to u the

1 most socially acceptable.” I found this text message to be abusive  harassing. Attached hereto
2 as Exhibit 4 is a true and correct copy of this text message.

3 12. On July 25, 2024, Respondent left me eight voicemails and sent me three emails and
4 four text messages. In one text message, Respondent wrote, “It’s only you now my love.”

5 Respondent also sent a request to share a Checking and Savings account with me and wrote, “Sry
6 about SoFi thing thought we could bank as flirty ppl too.” This text message demonstrated
7 me that Respondent is mentally unstable. I am concerned that Respondent will continue to contact
8 and harass me in a misguided attempt to  am a romantic relationship. Attached hereto as Exhibit
9 5 is a true and correct copy of this text message.

10 13. On July , 2024, Respondent left me five voicemails and sent me five text
11 messages. In one voicemail he stated, “like fuck you. I don’t who you are, but fuck you.” This 12 voicemail demonstrated to me that Respondent is mentally unstable. I also found the voicemails to 13 be abusive and harassing given that he left five of them and given the direct profane language
14 directed at me. Attached hereto as Exhibit 6 and 7 is a true and correct copy of the voicemail
15 recording and a transcript of the voicemail recording.

16 14. On July 27, 2024, Respondent left me ten voicemails and sent me three text
17 messages and three emails. These messages alternate between expressions of love and anger. In 18 one voicemail, he states, “Hi. I love you so much.” In a voicemail later that day, he states, “I hope
19 China fucks you.” This text message demonstrated to me that Respondent is mentally unstable
20 and that he delusionally believes that we have a romantic relationship.  Attached hereto as Exhibit
21 8 and 9 is a true and correct copy of the first voicemail recording and a transcript of that voicemail
22 recording. Attached hereto as Exhibit 10 and 11 is a true and correct copy of the second voicemail
23 recording and a transcript of that voicemail recording.

24 15. That same day, Respondent texted me, “Have to figure out out the psychosis fully
25 and why rid the complex sleep.” I have interpreted this statement as indicating that Respondent
26 has mental health issues and possibly mental health disorders. Attached hereto as Exhibit 12 is a
27 true and correct copy of this text message.
28

16. That same day, Respondent also texted me, “I love you send receipts to harass me and u stalk me not in a loving way but a despicable hateful way secretly online, because you want me to suffer as much UN human rights violating in humane abuse. I do not hope that God any god would ever bless u Or any of your any number of possible white knights who’s doing g it in demand of sex from u so just tough it out with a quick BJ first and try to enjoy it if possible.” This text message demonstrated to me that Respondent is mentally unstable. I also found the text message to be abusive and harassing given that I found it to be ranting and unhinged. Attached hereto as Exhibit 13 is a true and correct copy of this text message.

Respondent Continues To Contact Ms. Briasco-Stewart In Violation Of The Temporary Restraining Order

17. On July 29, 2024, the Court granted my request for a Temporary Restraining Order. Respondent has continued to contact me in violation of the Temporary Restraining Order. In fact, Respondent’s behavior has escalated more since the filing and issuance of the Temporary Restraining Order. I am concerned that Respondent will commit an act of violence against me and/or continue to threaten, harass, stalk, and disturb my peace via written communications and voicemails.

18. That same day, Respondent left me two voicemails and texted me a photo of my Petition for Civil Harassment Restraining Order, and wrote, “Do u have the balls to show up I doubt it; probably no show I mean really it expires if u no show but ur going down if I have to fly there.” I am concerned that Respondent will continue to harass me. Attached hereto as Exhibit 14 is a true and correct copy of these text messages.

19. On July 30, 2024, Respondent left me three voicemails and sent me several text messages, including a text message stating, “It’s called good and evil; when you know you want to murder, I’ll stay in your heart forever no matter what happens to me.” This text message alarmed me and disturbed my emotional and mental calm. This text message also demonstrates to me Respondent’s mental instability. Attached hereto as Exhibit 15 is a true and correct copy of this text message.

20. On July 31, 2024, Respondent left me one voicemail and a text message stating, “wow ur popular every white knight wants to eliminate me ur true love eventually to ask for sexual favors later . . . always pretty and in love with already to me.” This text message demonstrated to me that Respondent is mentally unstable and that he believes he is in love with me. Attached hereto as Exhibit 16 is a true and correct copy of this text message.

21. Between August 1, 2024, and August 3, 2024, Respondent left me 11 voicemails and sent me seven text messages and 19 emails. I found the sheer number of voicemails, text messages, and emails to be harassing, especially given that I had already sought and received a temporary restraining order against Respondent—clearly showing that I wanted no further contact from him. Yet, he continued to disregard the order and contact me.

22. On August 2024, Respondent left me 10 voicemails and 11 emails. I found the sheer number of voicemails and emails to be harassing, especially given that I had already sought and received a temporary restraining order against Respondent—clearly showing that I wanted no further contact from him. Yet, he continued to disregard the order and contact me. Respondent also twice posted my full name and phone number on Twitter. I found this alarming because I do not want my private information posted on the internet.

23. Between August 5, 2024, and August 13, 2024, Respondent left me 11 voicemails and sent me 26 emails. I found the sheer number of voicemails and emails to be harassing, especially given that I had already sought and received a temporary restraining order against Respondent—clearly showing that I wanted no further contact from him. Yet, he continued to disregard the order and contact me.

24. On August 16, 2024, Respondent sent me 56 emails. I found the sheer number of emails to be harassing, especially given that I had already sought and received a temporary restraining order against Respondent—clearly showing that I wanted no further contact from him. Yet, he continued to disregard the order and contact me.

25. On August 17, 2024, Respondent sent me 38 emails. I found the sheer number of emails to be harassing, especially given that I had already sought and received a temporary

1 restraining order against Respondent—clearly showing that I  ted no further contact from him.
2 Yet, he continued to disregard the order and contact me.

3 26. On August 18, 2024, Respondent left me 13 voicemails and sent me four emails and
4 two text messages. In one of the voicemails, Respondent stated “but can you imagine me
5 harming you intentionally, in undue manner . . . and like, can you imagine me doing that, or
6 anyone else? I’m not sure. I really hope somehow you’re protected.” I have interpreted this
7 voicemail as a statement that Respondent ot know whether he can prevent himself from 8 harming me. It also demonstrated to me that spondent is mentally unstable. I am concerned that
9 Respondent ill commit an act of violence against me and/or continue to threaten, harass, and stalk
10 me. Attached  to as Exhibit 17 and 18 is a true and correct copy of the voicemail recording and 11 a transcript of the voicemail recording.

12 27. On August 18, 2024, Respondent also left me another voicemail, stating “I just 13 arrived in San Francisco. So now you don’t need an extradition treaty to submit a violation
14 report to the police.” I have interpreted this voicemail as indication that Respondent was aware of 15 the temporary restraining order and intended to continue to violate the TRO by contacting me. I
16 was also concerned that Respondent would attempt to locate me and harass me now that he was in 17 California. Attached hereto as Exhibit 19 and 20 are true and correct copies of the voicemail
18 recording and a transcript of the voicemail recording.

19 28. Between August 19, 2024, and August 20, 2024, Respondent left me one voicemail
20 and sent me 29 emails. I found the sheer nu r of emails to be harassing, especially given that I
21 had already sought and received a temporary training order against Respondent – clearly
22 showing that I wanted no further contact from him. Yet, he continued to disregard the order and 23 contact me.

24 29. On August 20, 2024, I attended a hearing in connection with my Petition for Civil
25 Harassment Restraining Order. Respondent also appeared at the hearing and took photos of me
26 without my consent inside and outside of the courtroom. Respondent posted these photos on 27 Twitter. In one post, he posted a photo of me entering the courtroom and wrote, “Oh she came in 28 person lol.” ound this to disturb my mental and emotional calm because I do not want pictures

1 of me posted on the internet without my consent. Attached hereto as Exhibit 21 is a true and
2 correct copy of this tweet.

3 30. That same day, Respondent also posted a screenshot of text messages he purportedly
4 sent to my father. In the text messages, Respondent sent a photo of me in the courtroom and wrote,
5 “I’m going to try to win as hard against your daughter on Sep 10 and also for the civil
6 complaint I filed, because I care about her wellbeing and respect her lol I’ll go work out
7 more each day and gain 10-15 lb muscle by Sep 10.” I found these messages to disturb my 8 emotional calm because I believe Respondent was trying to harass my father. Attached hereto as 9 Exhibit 22 is a true and correct copy of this tweet.

10 31. Between August 21, 2024, and August 25, 2024, Respondent left me 19 voicemails
11 and sent me 77 emails and text messages. I found the sheer number of voicemails and emails to 12 be harassing, especially given that I had already sought and received a temporary restraining order
13 against Respondent—clearly showing that I wanted no further contact from him. Yet, he continued
14 to disregard the order and contact me.

15 32. Between August 26, 2024, and August 27, 2024, Respondent left me 27 voicemails
16 and sent me 42 emails. I found the sheer number of voicemails and emails to be harassing,
17 especially given that I had already sought and received a temporary restraining order against 18 Respondent—clearly showing that I wanted no further contact from him. Yet, he continued to 19 disregard the order and contact me.

20 33. On August 27, 2024, Respondent sent me an email, with the subject line, “And then fuck u
21 teasingly in front of Judge Tong September 10 2024.” I found this email to disturb my 22 emotional calm because they were sexually explicit and disturbing. Attached hereto as Exhibit 23
23 is a true and correct copy of this email.

24 34. On August 28, 2024, Respondent left me a voicemail where he said, “So I actually
25 appreciate you filing the RO. There was a method of communication because when I
26 challenged the legality of it.” I found these messages to disturb my emotional calm because it was 27 repeated contact from Respondent. I am also concerned that Respondent is now attempting to use these proceedings to continue to abuse and harass me. Attached hereto as Exhibit 24 and 25 is a true and correct copy of the voicemail recording and a transcript of the voicemail recording.
28

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on September 6, 2024, in San Francisco, California.

Hey, I love you, forever. I think the timeline of <<slurring>> available to you or anyone else may increase because I just need to be 100% ~~Sam~~. <<slurring>>. Did you know what or who Google or did and agreed with it. Ah, you don't know this shit. I think they don't tell you anything. Um, as far as I know, this <<slurring>> from you and then I was taking a recording, but I believe less than a year actually. <<slurring>> are so strong and <<slurring>>. Grubhub they, they, they, they fucking, they expired Grubhub <<slurring>>. I mean you <<slurring>> for like DB thing I mean <<slurring>>. Or launching <<slurring>>. I mean you <<slurring>> so that <<slurring>> so that it's anonymous. I shut up because they already have access so something other than to <<slurring>> you, but insurance for work. I'm not 100% confident that that even go is secure from malicious anything but I believe they will figure it out. And that a deep at the window, deep, deep, deep into it. <<slurring>> they use the other windows, which has shown me removal access, but some program I already installed or by the OS isn't your fucking problem with your installing. So I might. Anytime anything I've talked about is probably not a random <<slurring>> it could be but you have to be fucking scared because each program has full file access, come on. Be responsible Also, but I hope you feel bad for me because I don't believe I deserve this. But I deserve this I was watching Twitch and the controversial is seriously like <<slurring>>. Oh god. Because it must have been sucked. And explain why he loves solar, she doesn't need the solar. <<slurring>> bankrupt. <<slurring>> to anything and the guy's like oh it's just a good fucking Apple. <<slurring>> do window <<slurring>> and after getting rid of their account link that fixes everything, like normal surge <<slurring>>. Uh cute. I see your update, but you have no control over my <<slurring>> computer so far. I believe the Fresh MacBook might be safe enough. Apple sources is hard to secure you, but fully it uses iCloud. But anyway, this is common sense. I will do everything 100% right. Unless I resisting <<slurring>>. But I will easily <<slurring>>, that's secure. <<slurring>> I don't know. It is actually harsh <<slurring>>. If we have to trust Microsoft. I don't. Uh. And once you learn more about it, it works you could fix if you push yourself or if you talk. And if you already have <<slurring>>, I believe isn't Washington <<slurring>>. But Washington didn't seem to suggest that, right? Because they can't the the the malware is just being unauthorized. <<slurring>> So the math comes, it's always math like let me do <<slurring>> basic setup on the new assumed secure computer and pray that I win. <<slurring>>. Anyways. I will, I'm not sure if these apps building apps then the first half is too much of a <<slurring>> and usually they're hidden customer service filtering, they call it that <<slurring>> access. <<slurring>>. The server only went to Denovo so do they actually even know who the fuck I am. <<slurring>>. But I mean IP address user right? Because you share information, I don't know. Um I do have faith in myself and I do believe things will work out and I do have enough emergency <<slurring>> or math that <<slurring>>. How much harder am I being fucked, I believe. There's no way you will be told leave <<slurring>> unlike the people who don't demand <<slurring>>. Always. I love you so much. Whatever. I will always love you <<slurring>>.

Obv the white knight sex favors thing a joke; you'll make me eternally happy as long as you are; 🤔👉

Uhh they actually call it "Jio psychosis or hallucination" but logical technology to extract pain, suffering, and instruction seemed to have been deployed against me. 🤔👉

Do you know any of these people? No way associated with Twitch and no way ur giving any orders. I highly doubt they've revealed them to me, but if you've ever heard I'd like to ask for a courtesy $1 refund lolol

I mean American tech seems to work perfectly and it's only when I tweet while I use drugs or not consistently while not tweeting 🤔👉

Please be logical in why there's probably never a chance us to meet IRL but that would make me so happy in any fantasy of this 🤔👉

Have to figure out out the psychosis fully and fully rid the complex sleep but look at human intervention with allegedly tech; it's not exactly caused by others but I will figure this out 🤔👉

So I really hate these stupid voice mails, but can you imagine me harming you intentionally, in undue manner, essentially? Because I believe we're in the [inaudible] portion of the [inaudible], and like, can you imagine me doing that, or anyone else? I'm not sure. I really hope somehow you're protected. The greatest impossible, and also somehow you're able to maintain anonymity, which you seem to prefer, but I'm not sure like how to move you from my life and to protect that—and like, it seems literal. I'm not doable, but I mean if you can you send like one more communication? Like, am I being needy here?

Hey, what's up. So I'm, I just arrived in San Francisco. So now you don't need an extradition treaty to submit a violation report to the police. However, that is your choice. Every person can do it. All right, see you.

So I actually appreciate you filing the RO. There was a method of communication because when I challenged the, the legality of it and I think last time I also recorded some obvious cyber attacks and not as obvious as this time. Actually, the police, or something, I knew something, knew was going on or something like that. But, now you are not. They have protect you independently from the people accusing me but, I'm, I'm really glad that I was able to challenge it and then like, leave voicemails and other stuff like that. I'm actually don't even voices to listen to that _____. I don't know _____, when I'm like tweeting about the RO and how I'm _____ lease. Like thing of it. _____ makes it more likely that you are actually getting this stuff. Before I was harassed so much _____ I wasn't really paying attention to the views you were sending. I saw a few of them across the time, but like. After the RO, I was able to think more clearly, logically. Instead of being screwed with and misled and lied to. I was able to think more logically, more clearly. And then, like all of the damage that they were trying to do to me, most of it, regardless of their best efforts. And uh, they seem whatever looked up. I was able to figure out a way around it and I feel not perfectly fine yet. But way better than before. Even when they weren't attacking me. You know that feeling when you're, like, worked up and you're anxious, but you feel more stable, more focused, more capable. It's not even short term, I believe. It means learning to, to do something better and more capable as a person in general. And if I'm wrong about this, like I don't think there is any way to be wrong about this because, are you able? I'm I taking that much inside of me? I took more today than the last two or three days, but when I wasn't feeling well, I was taking like 20 a day of this this batch and I was feeling like shit. More disoriented and they weren't even attacking, or much, or in this obvious way, so. Alright. I'll call you back with the final one _____.
